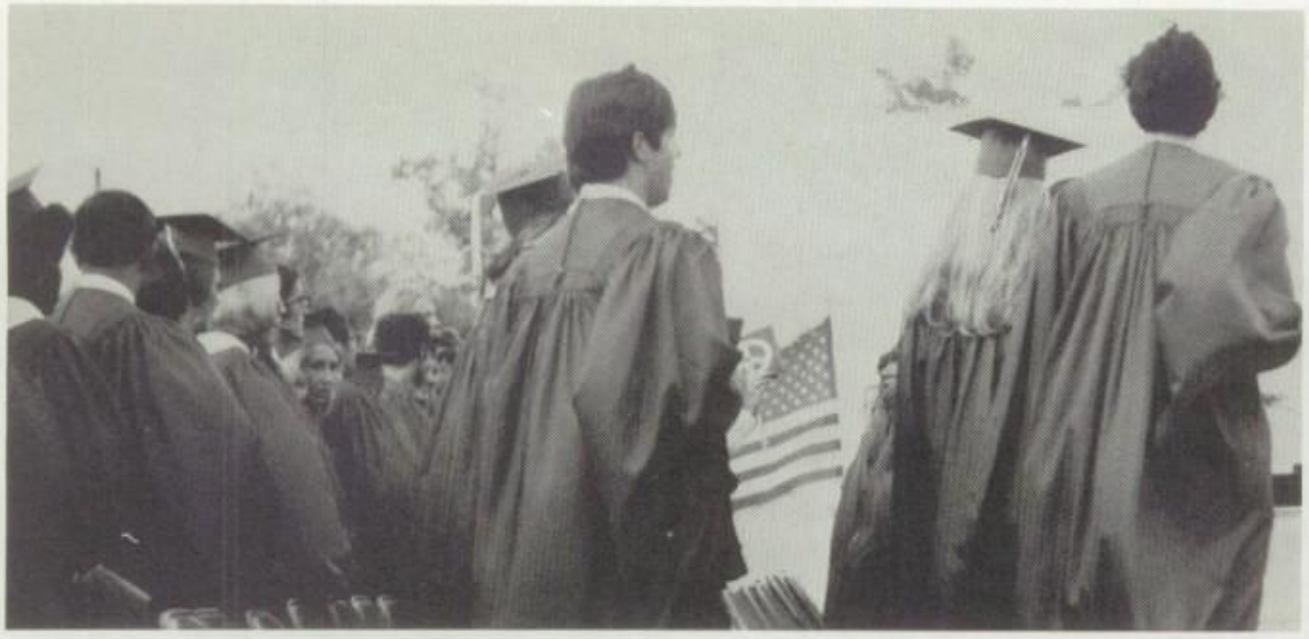
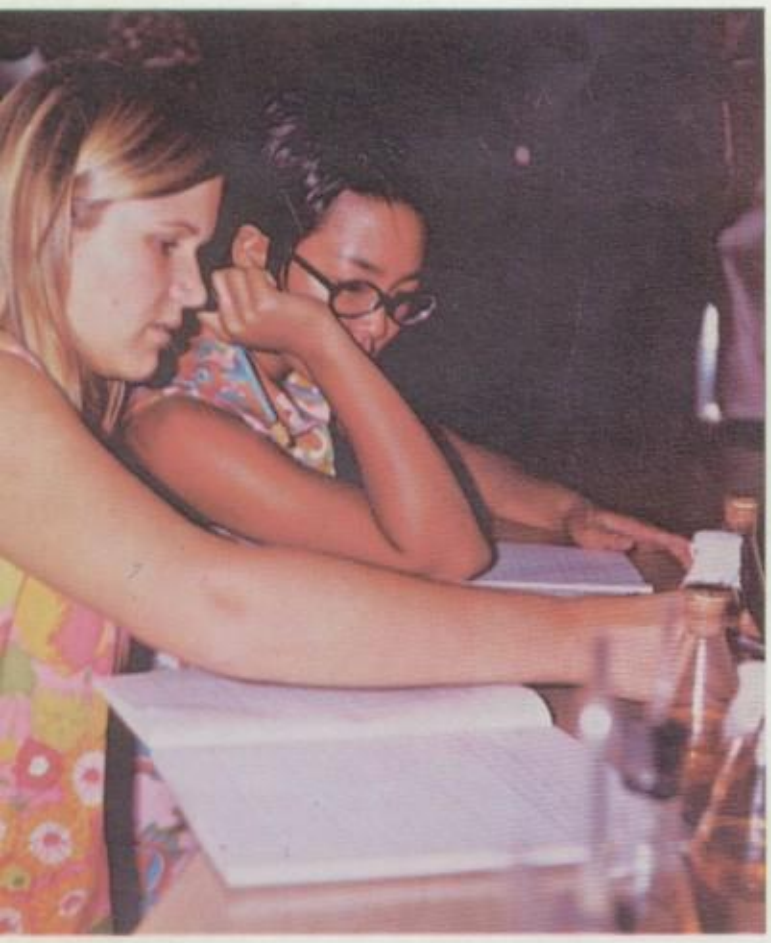
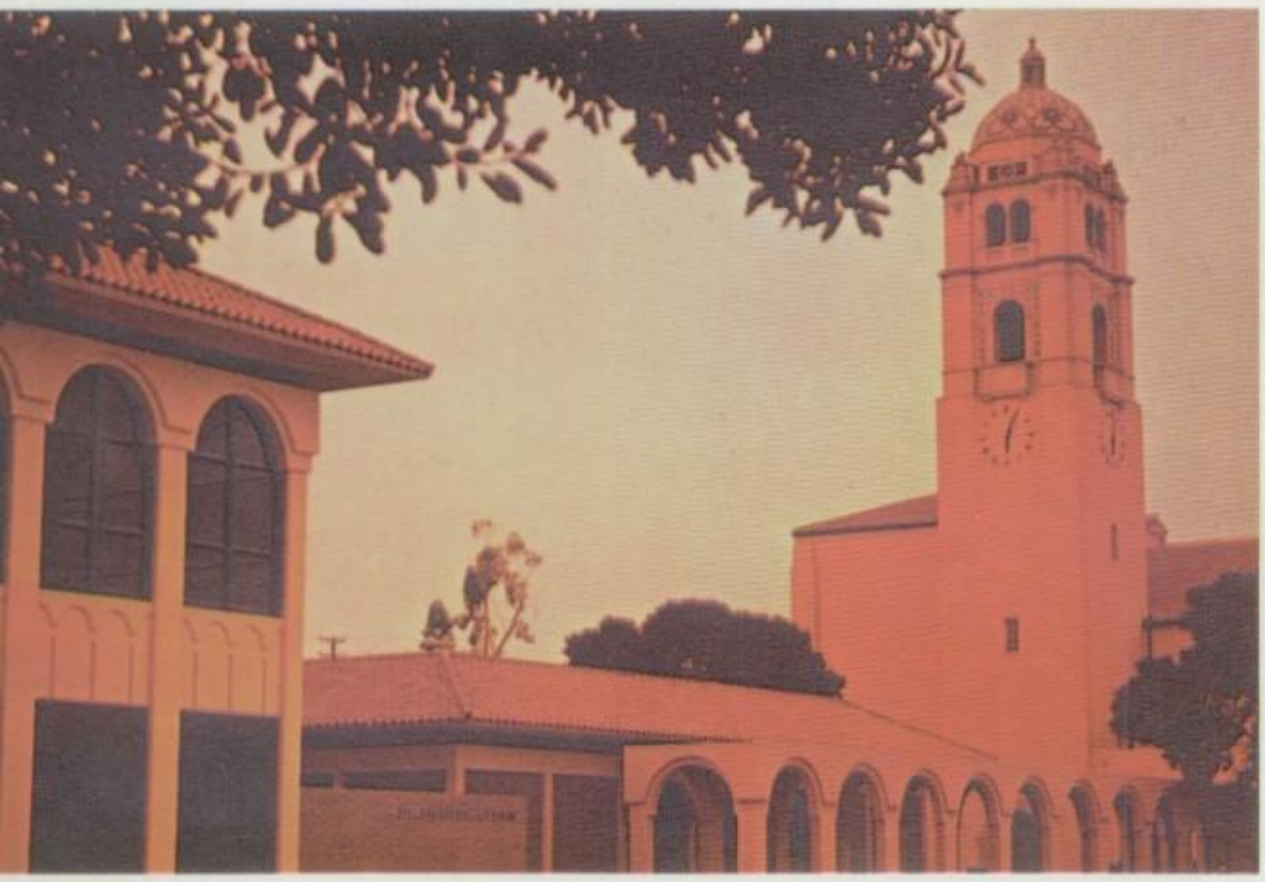
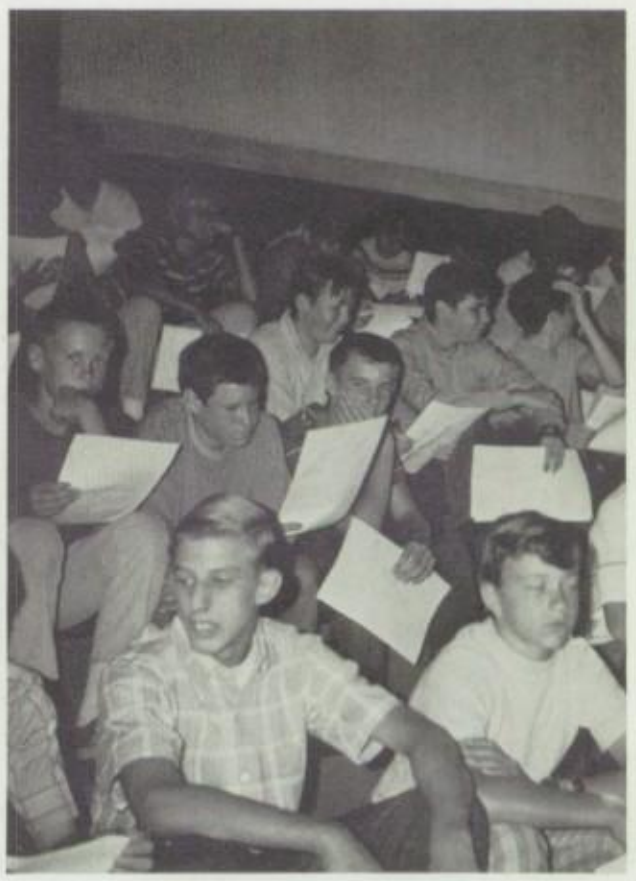
To everything there is a season,

And a time to every purpose under the heaven:





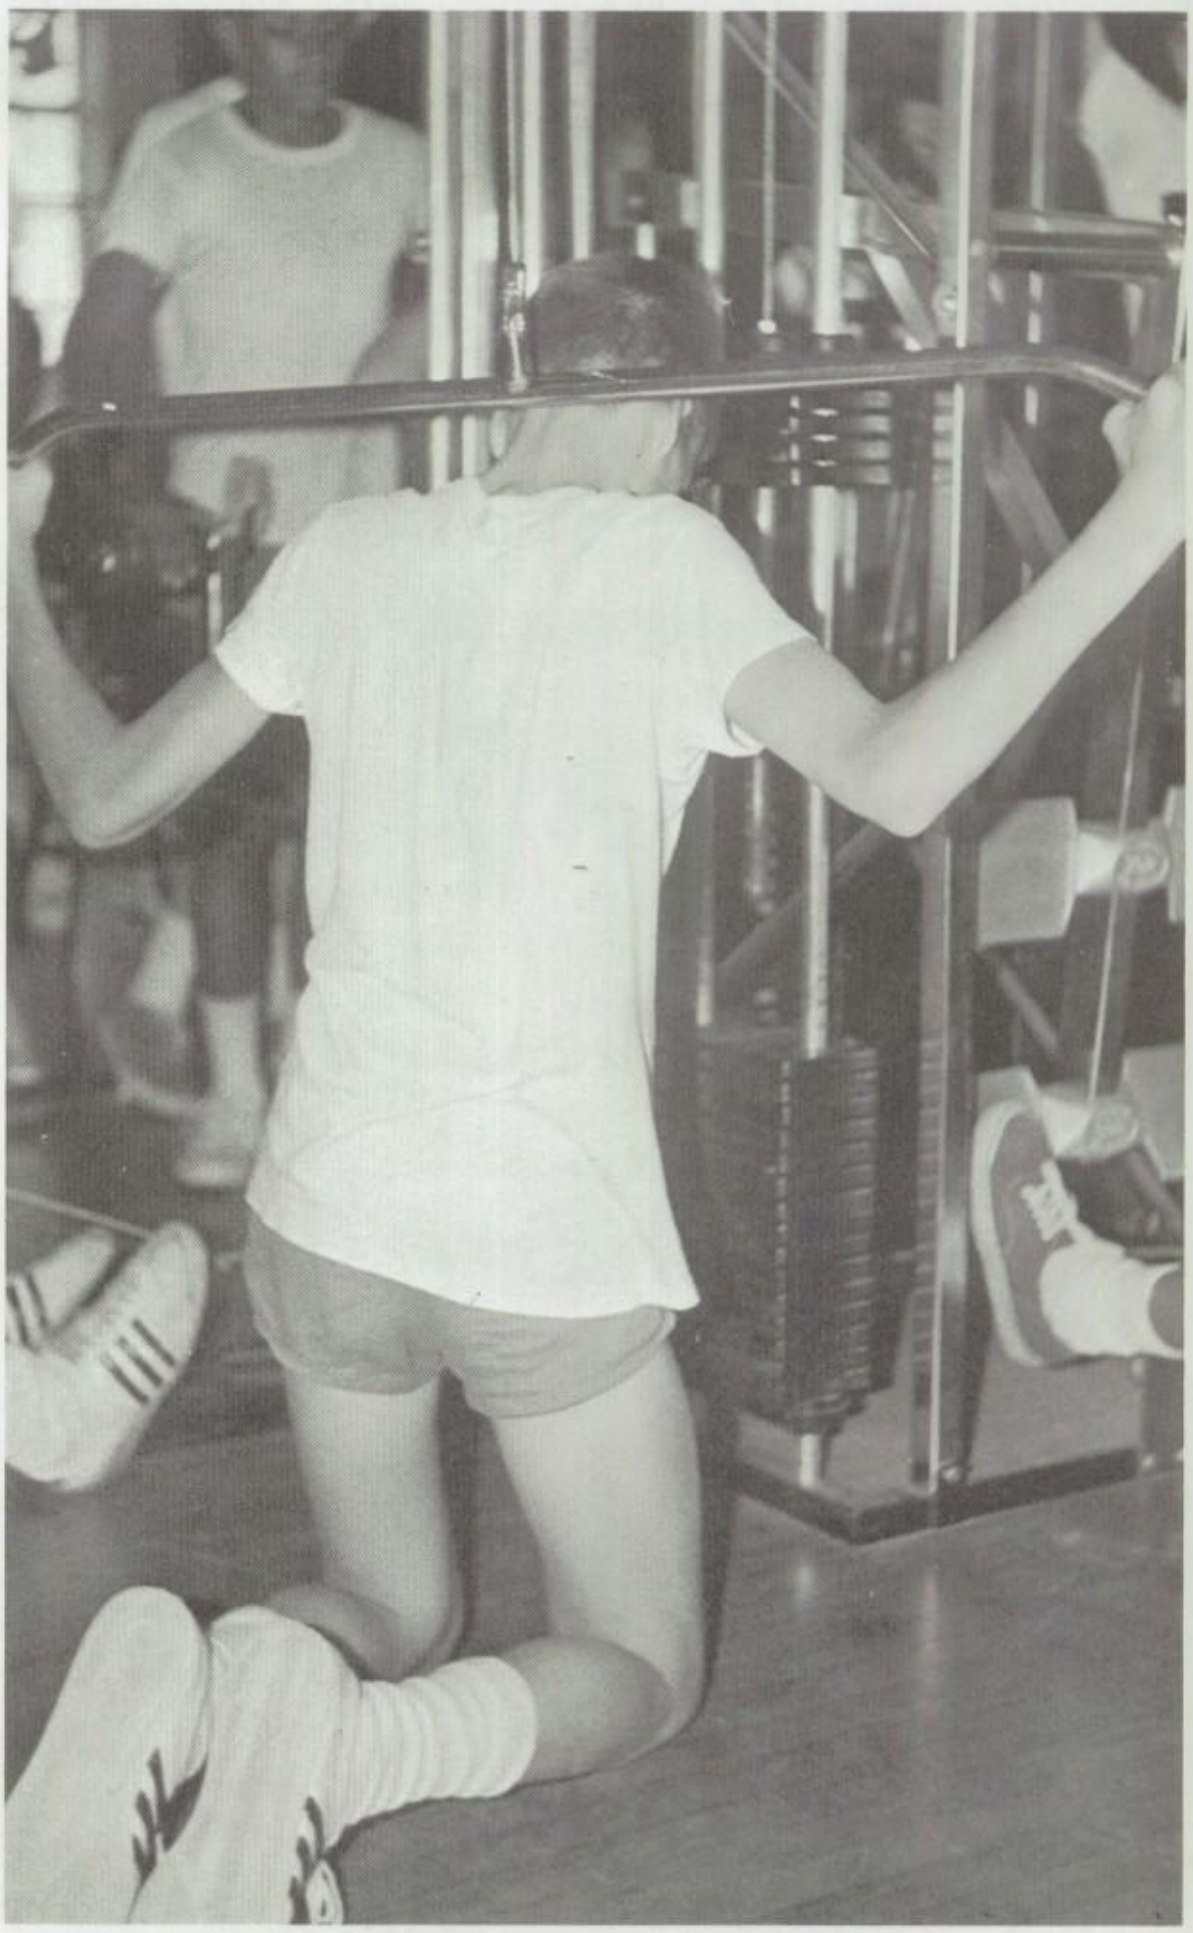




A time to be born, and a time to die;

A time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

A time to kill,
and a time to heal;
A time to break down,
and a time to build up;



CAVE
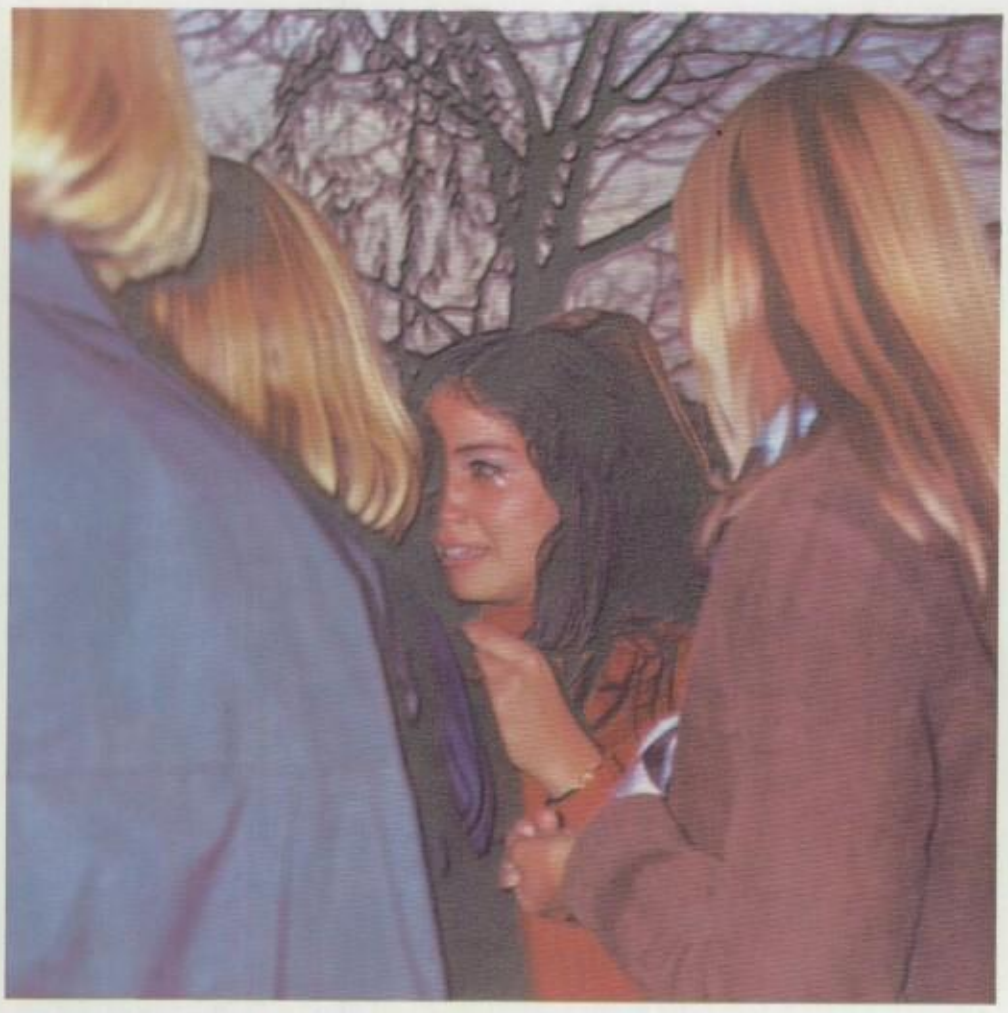
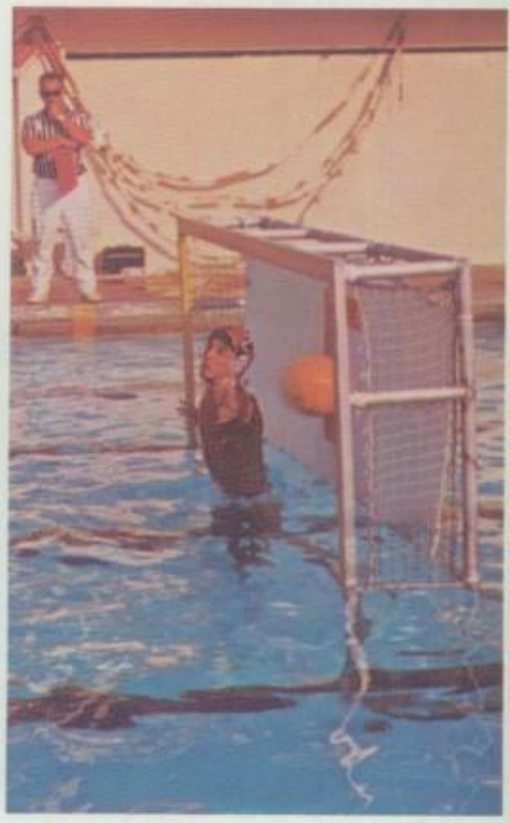
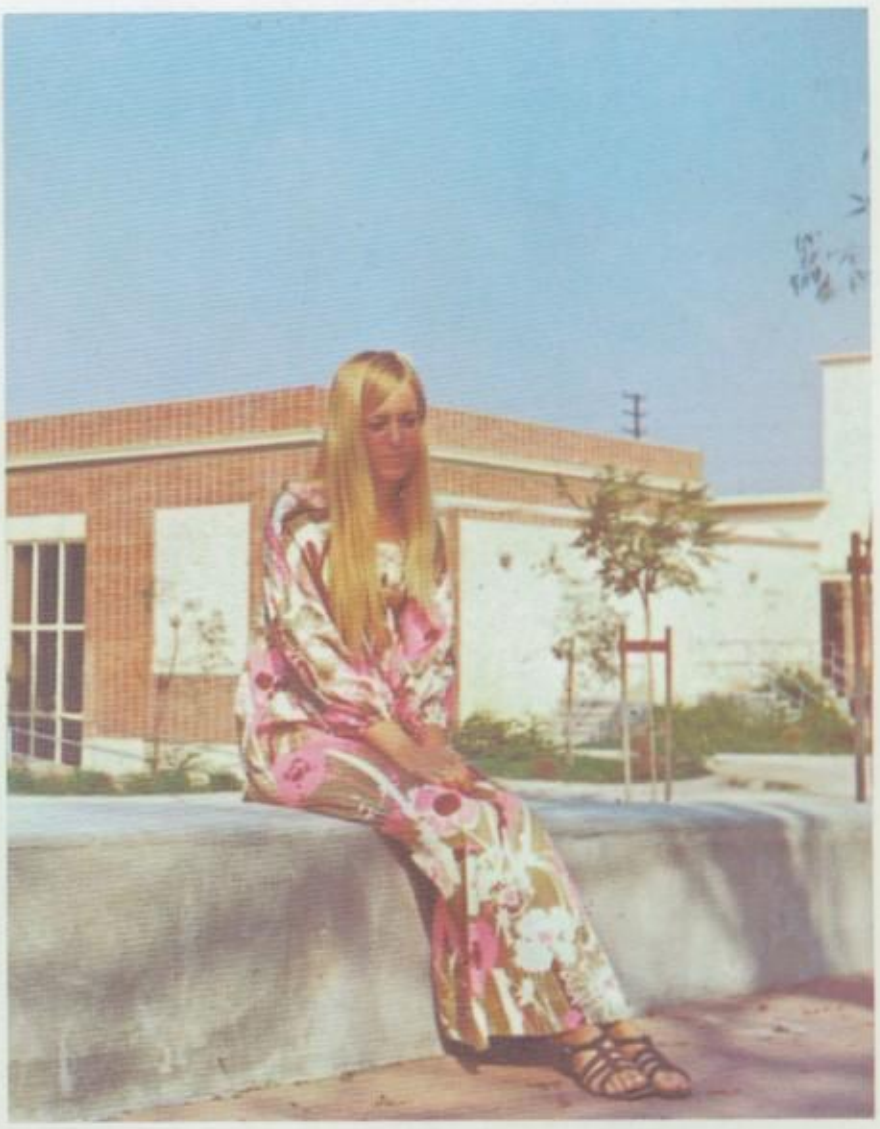
COYOTES

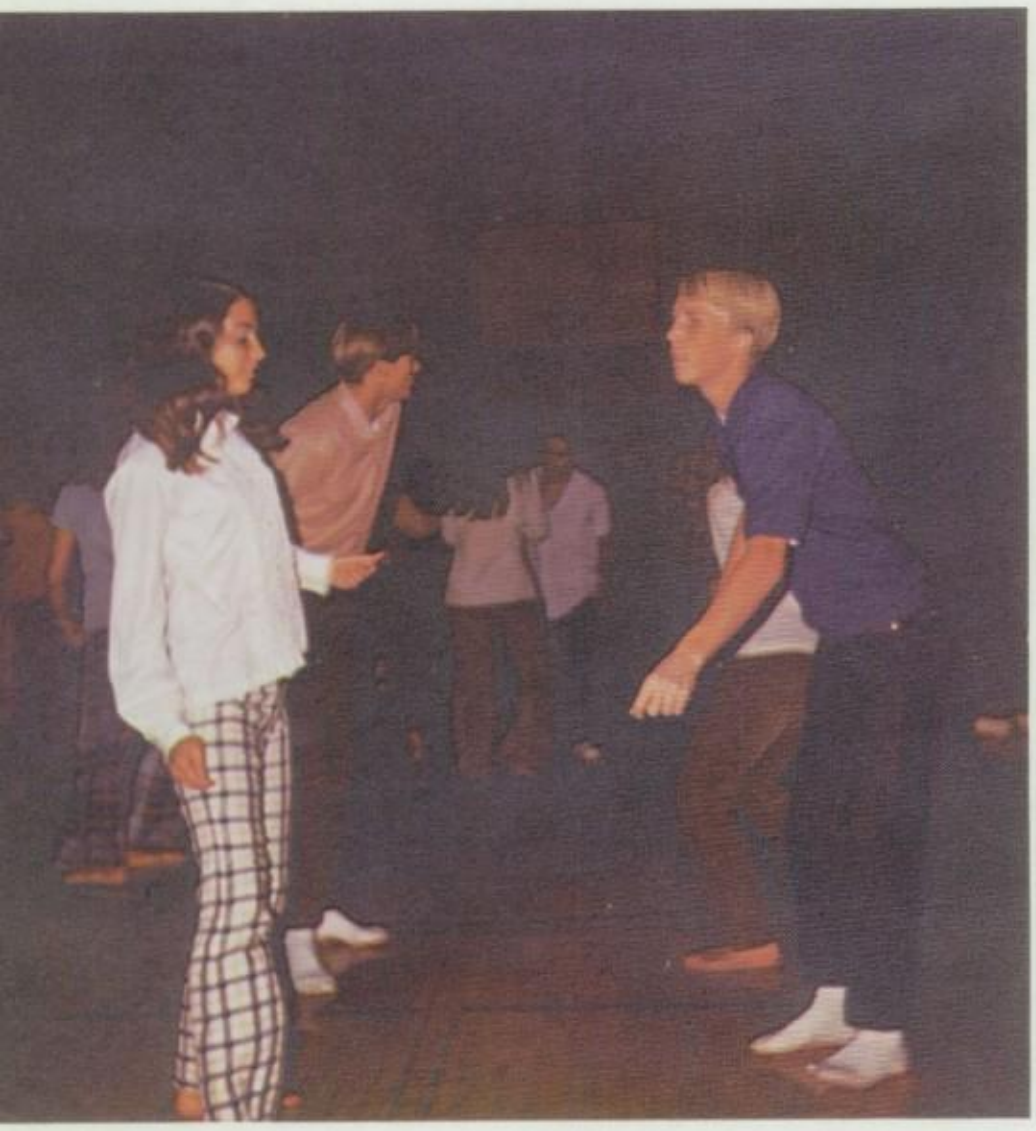
A time to weep, and a time to laugh;

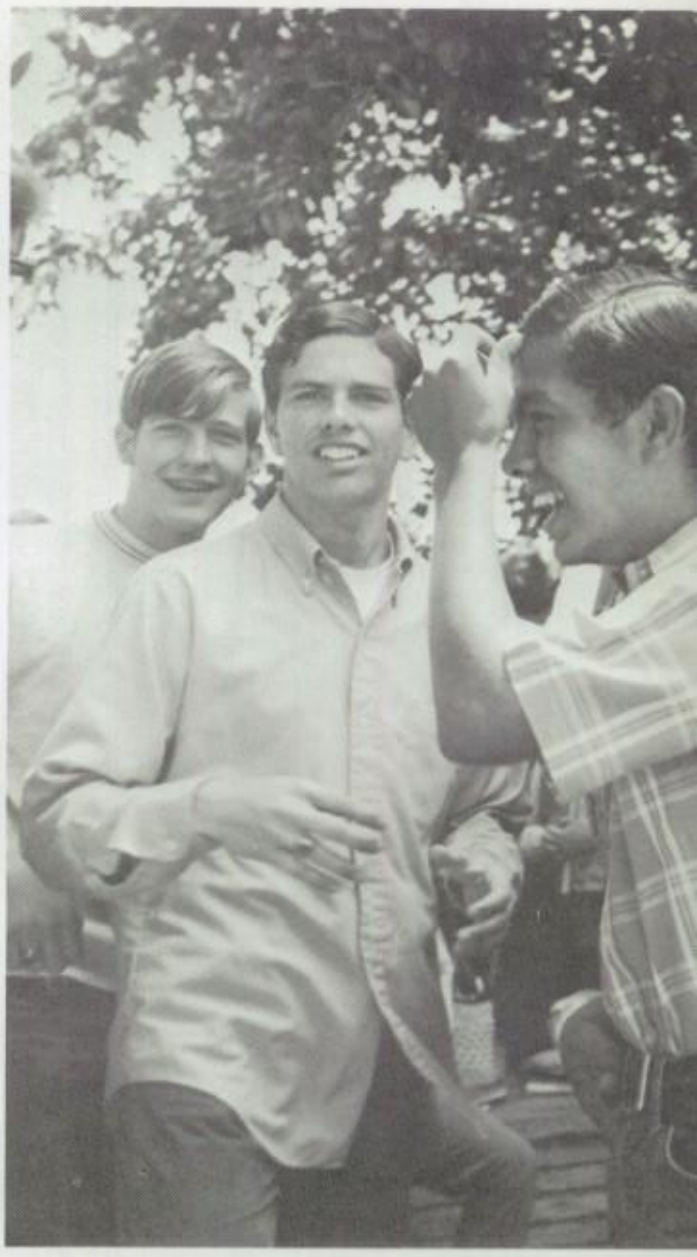
A time to mourn, and a time to dance;

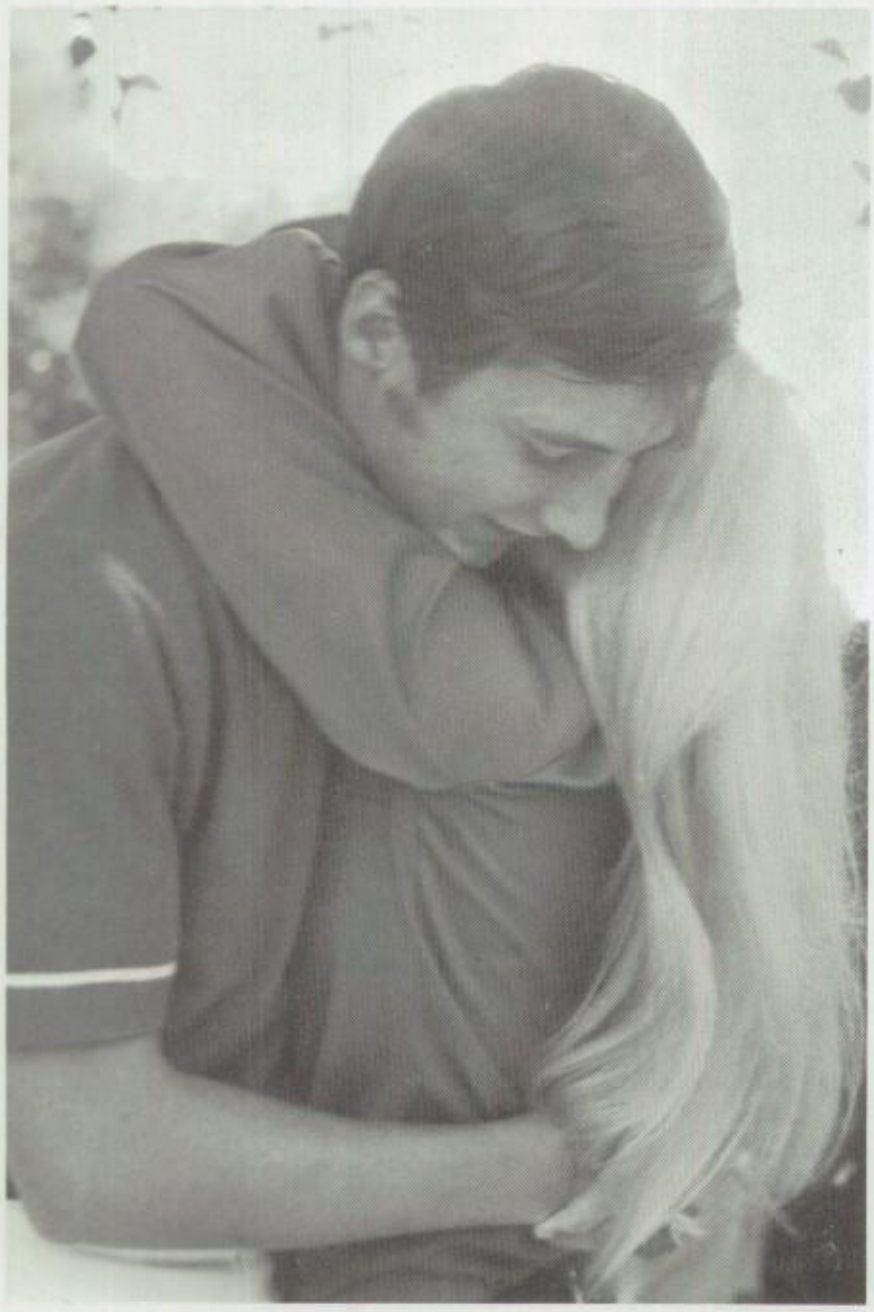


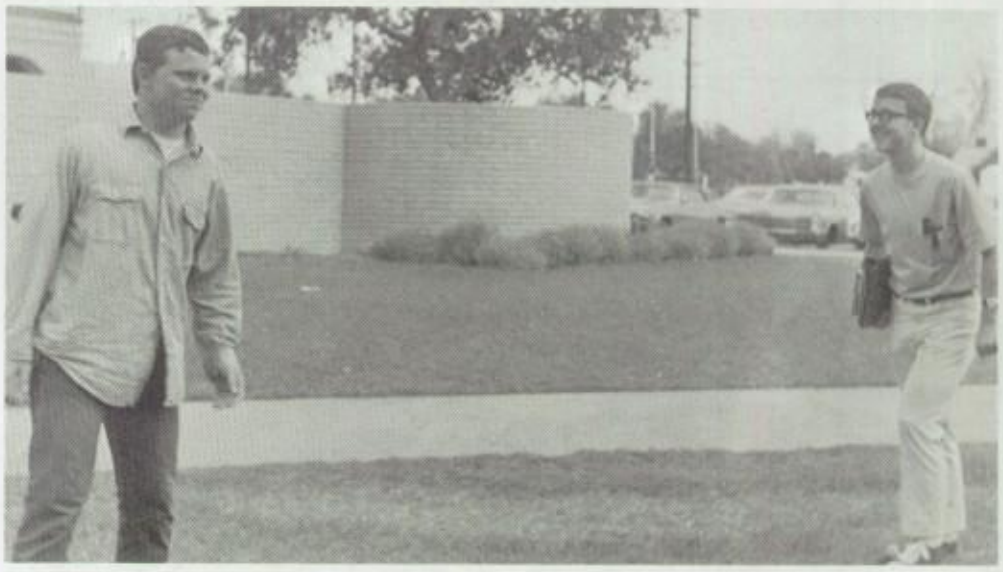




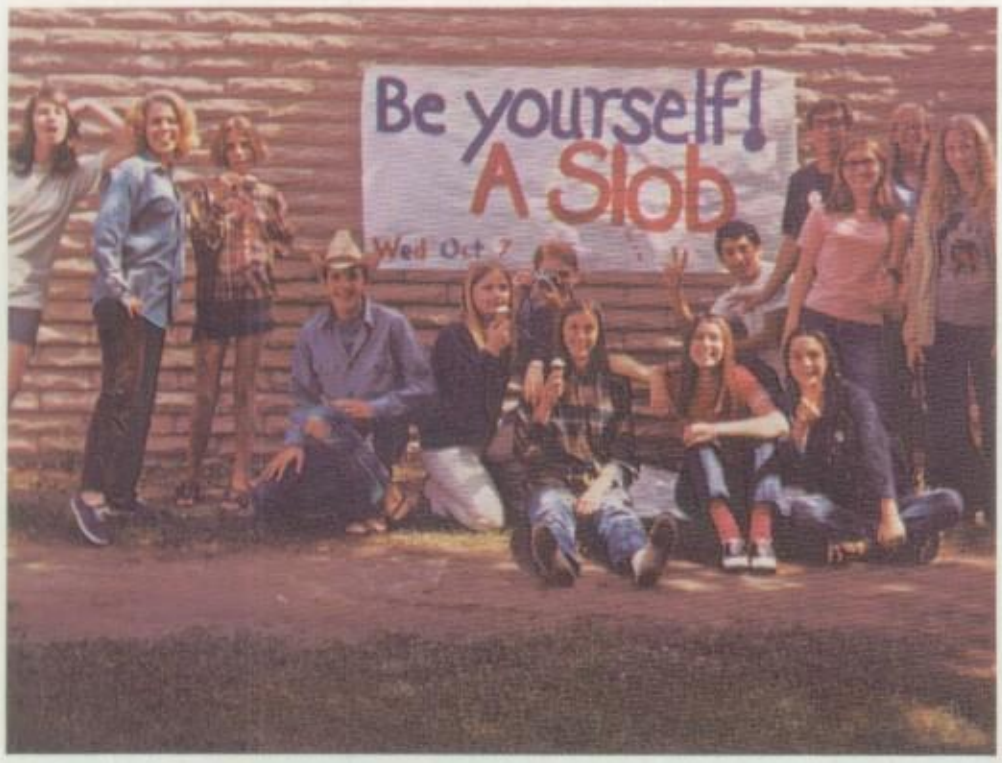




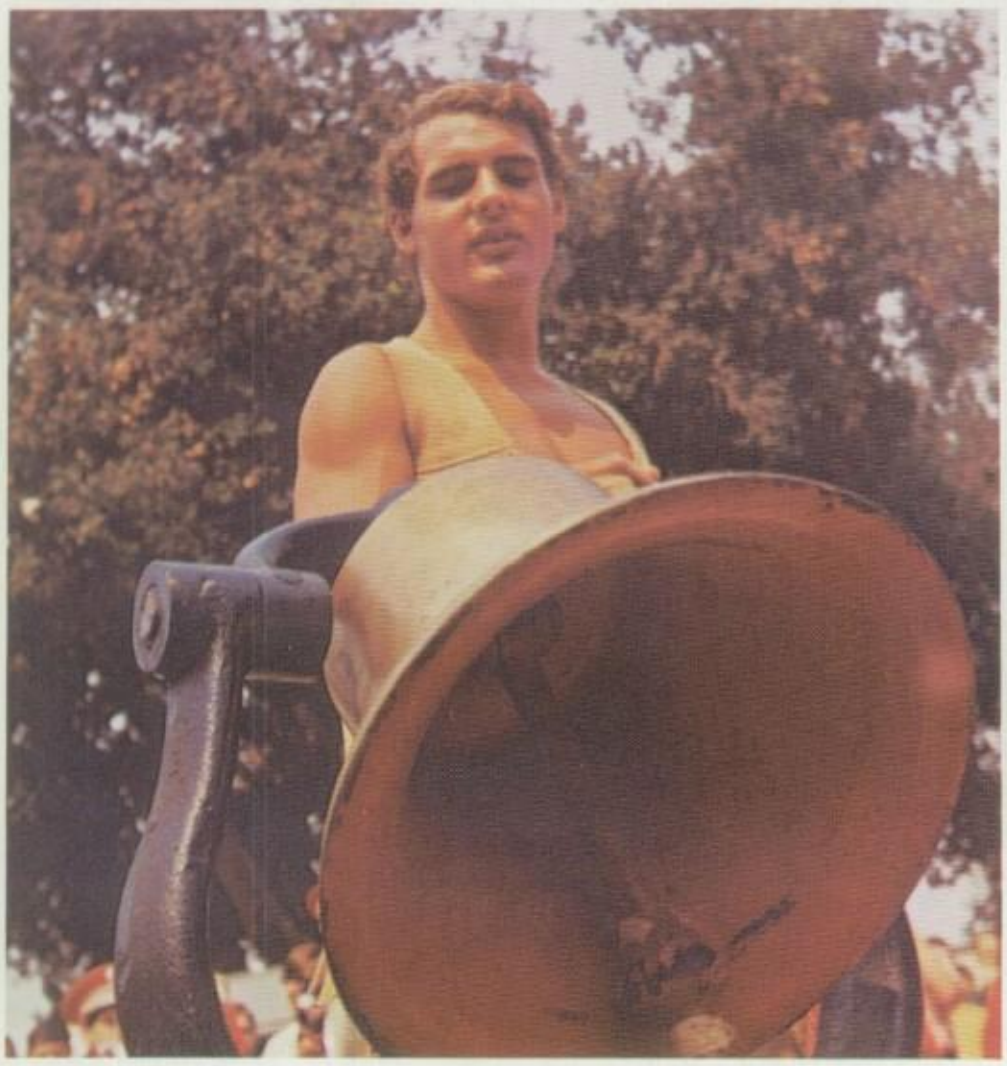


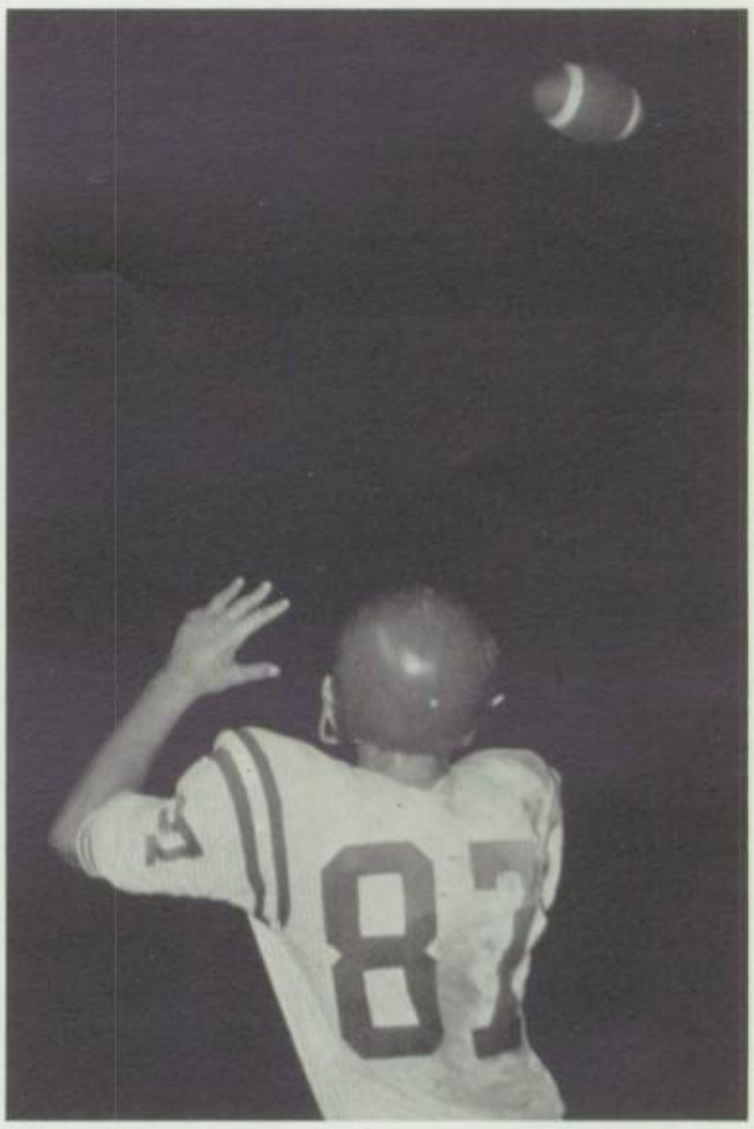


A time to cast away stones,
and a time to gather stones together;
A time to embrace,
and a time to refrain from embracing;



Be yourself!
A Slob
Wed Oct 7

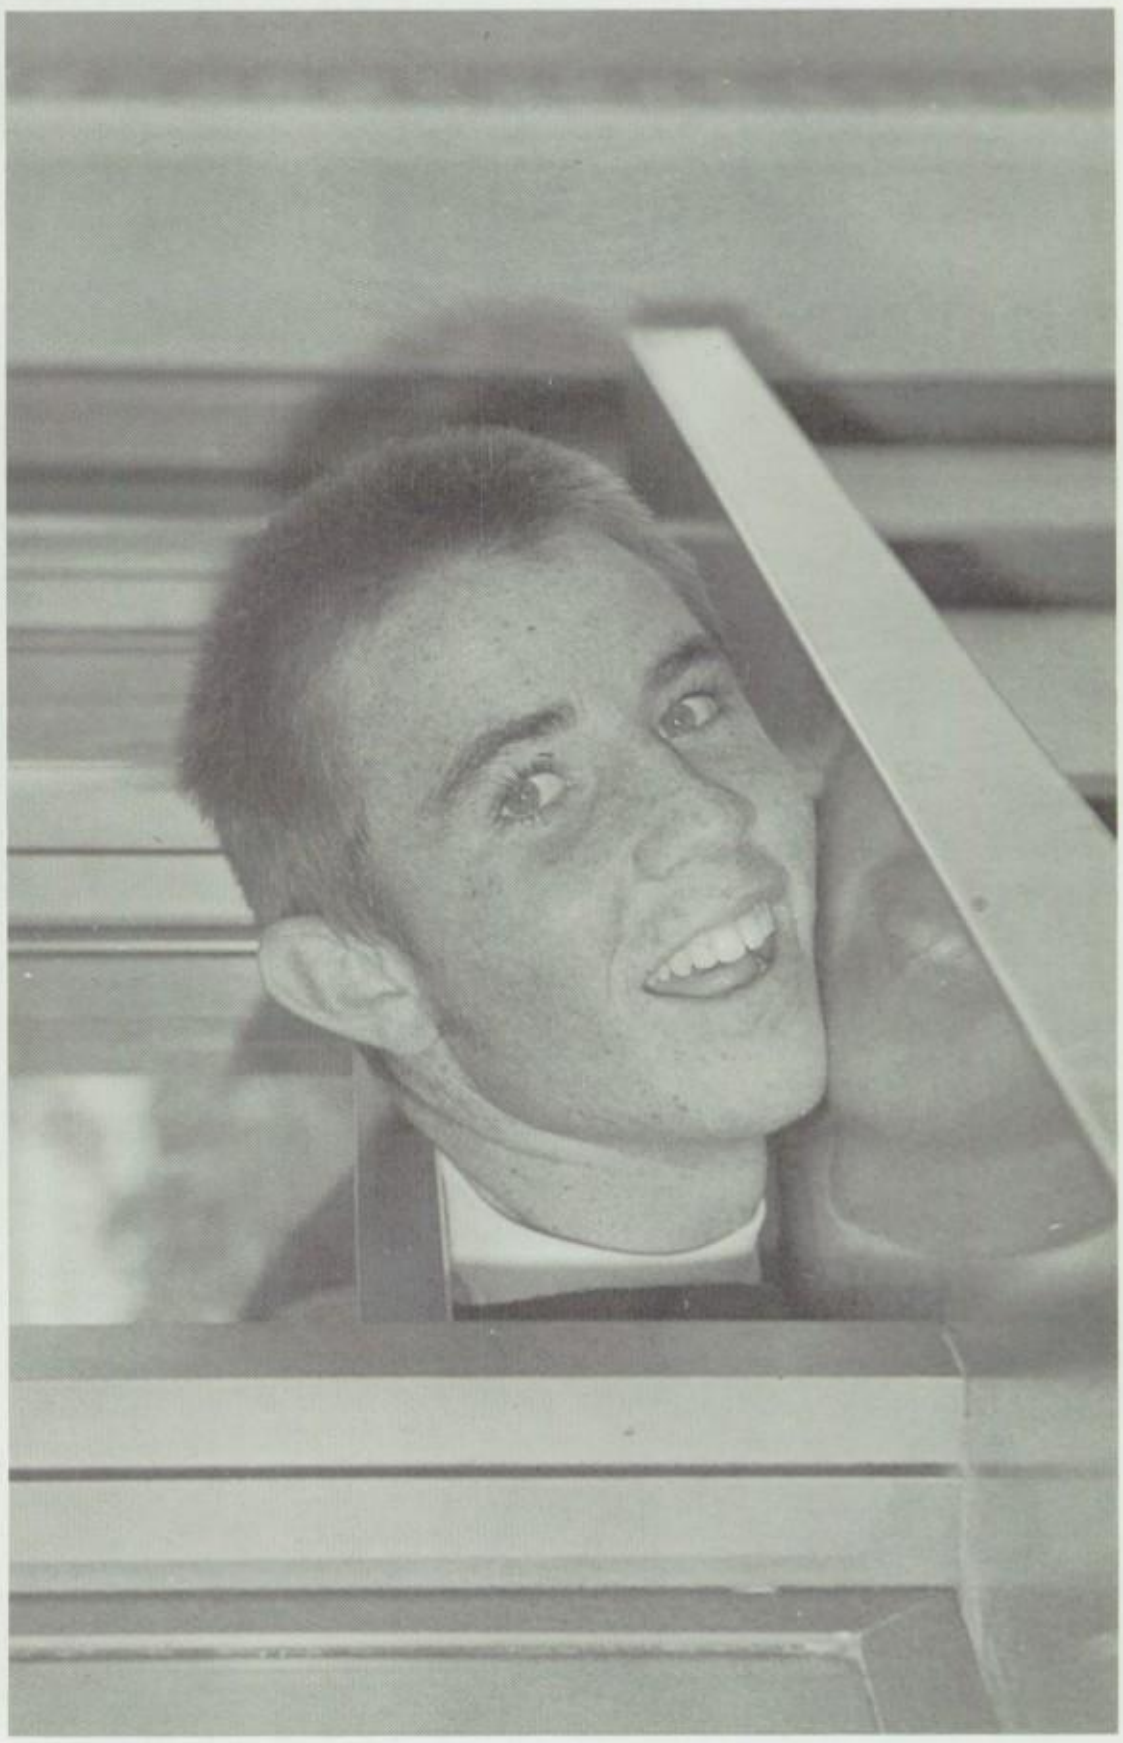




A time to get, and a time to lose;

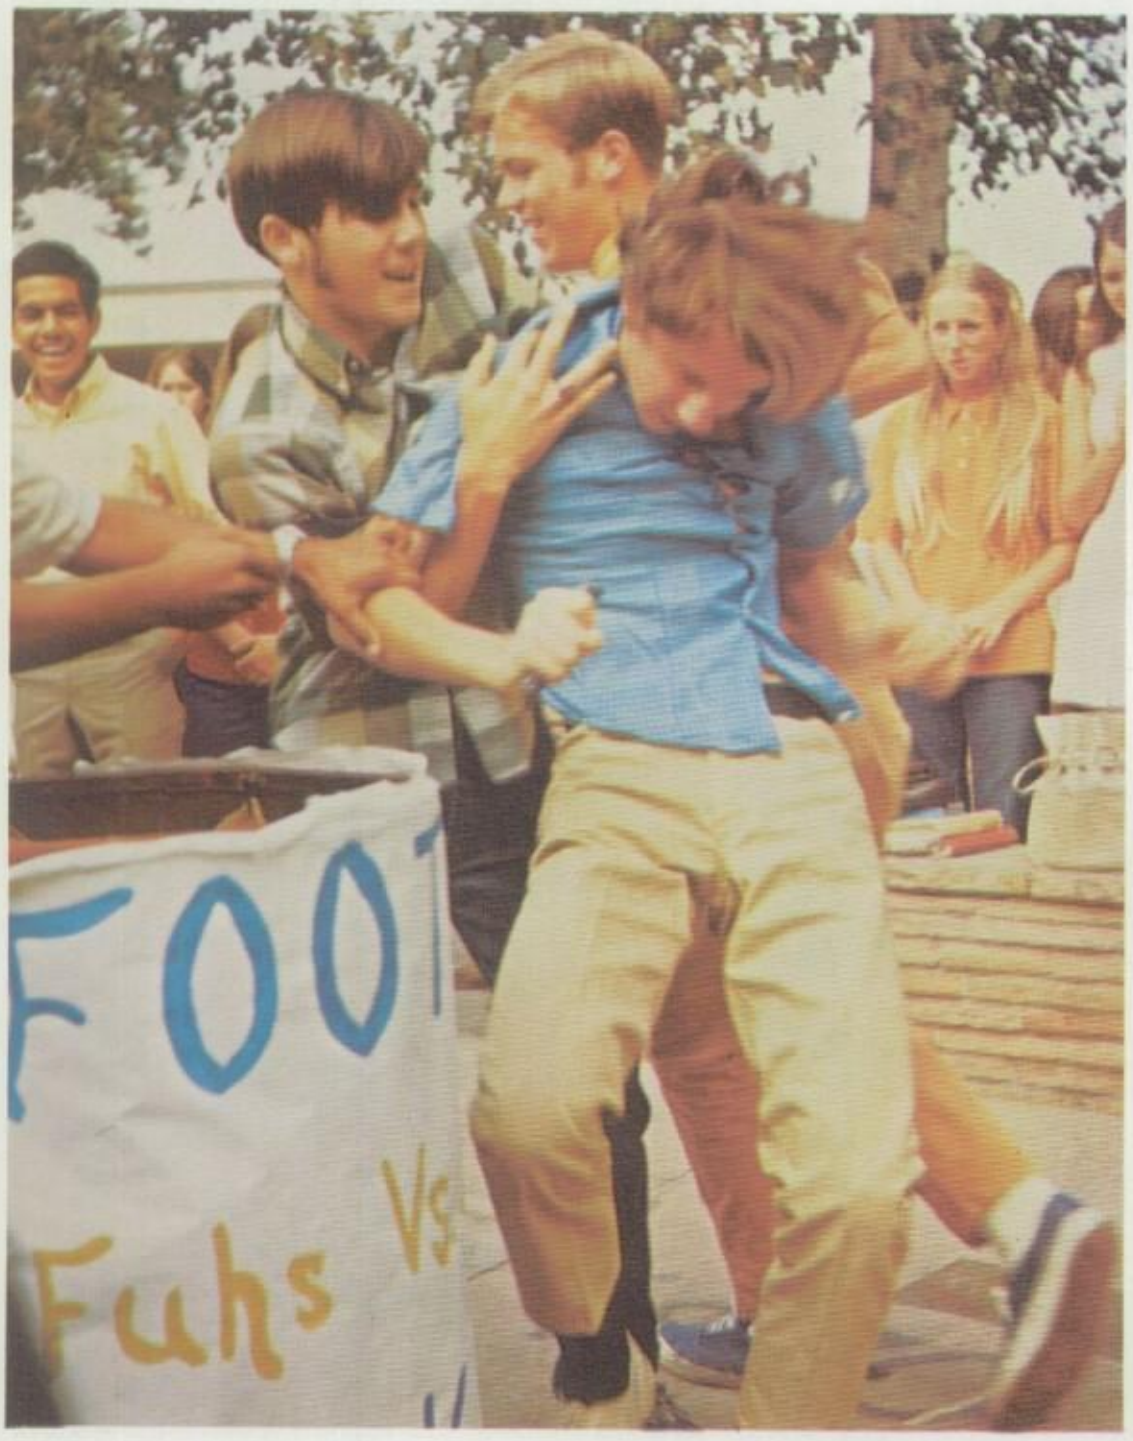
A time to keep, and a time to cast away;

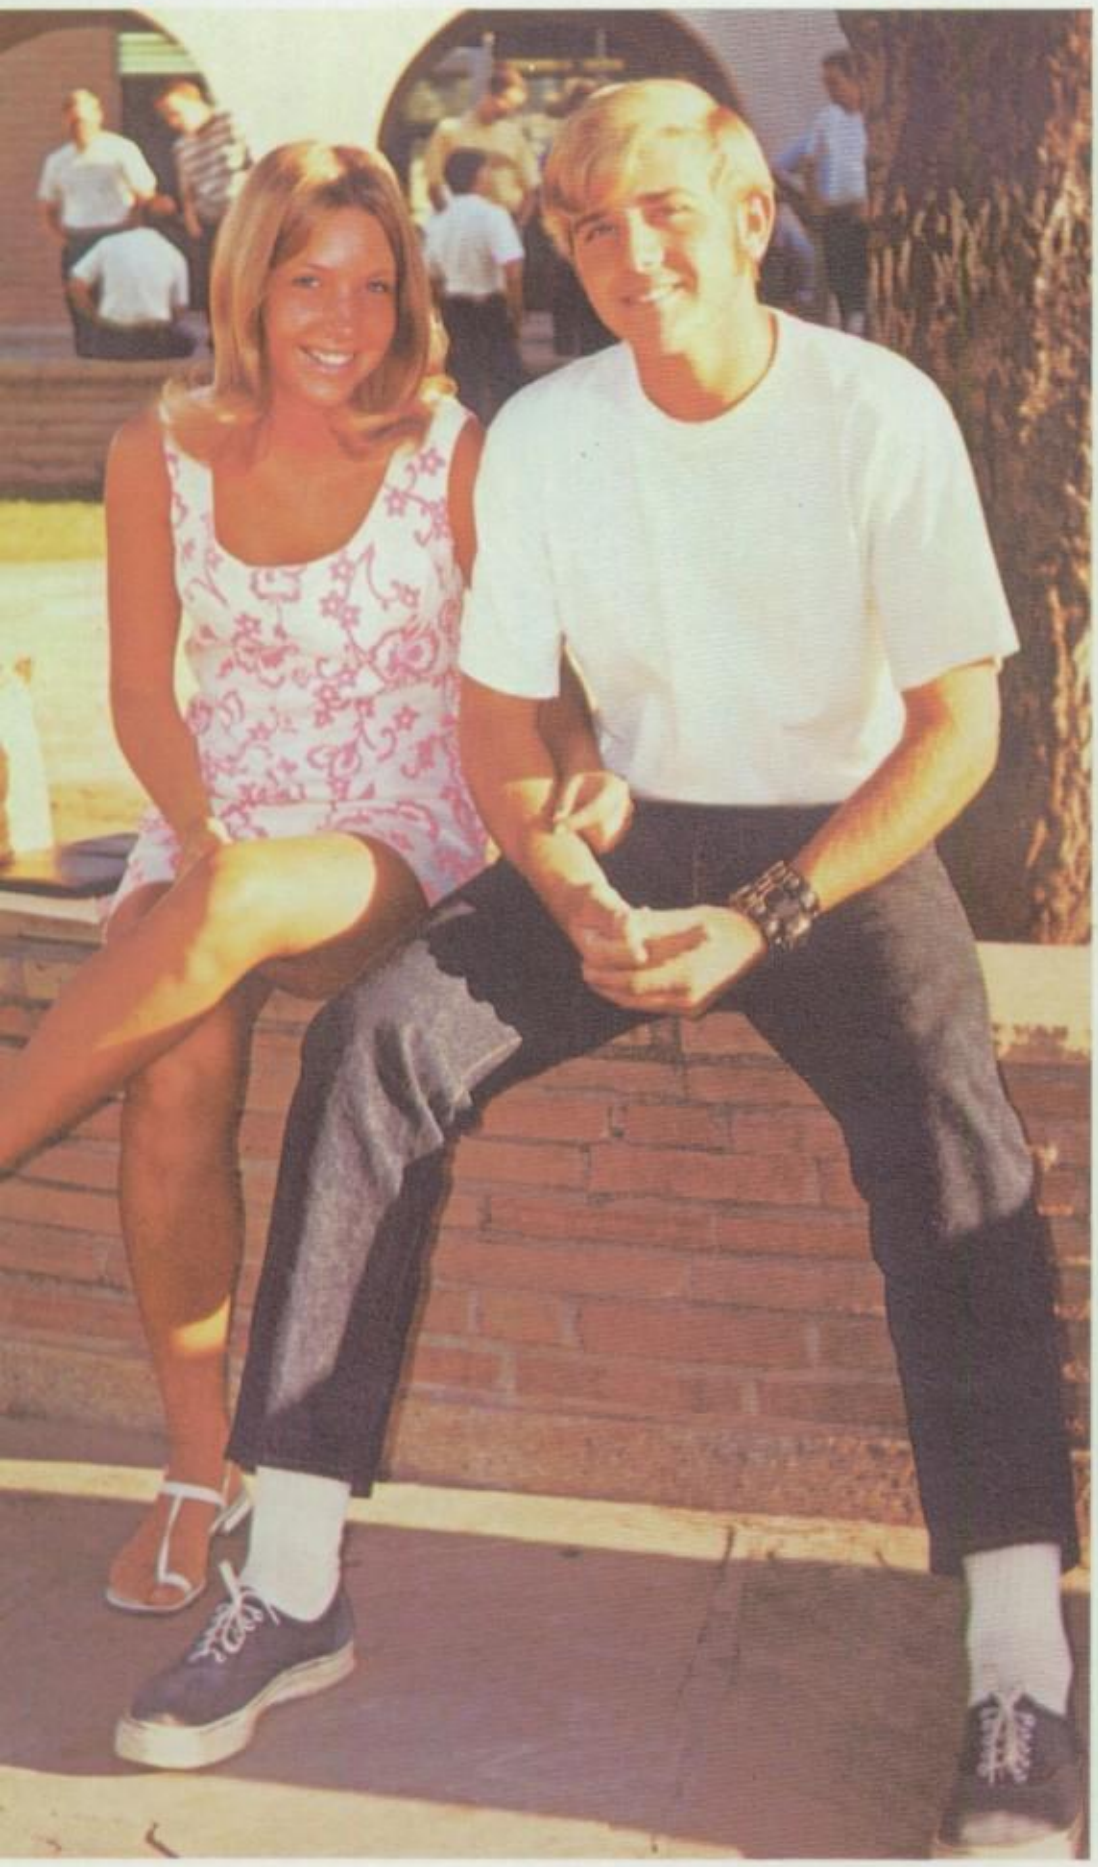
A time to rend,
and a time to sew;
A time to keep silence,
and a time to speak;

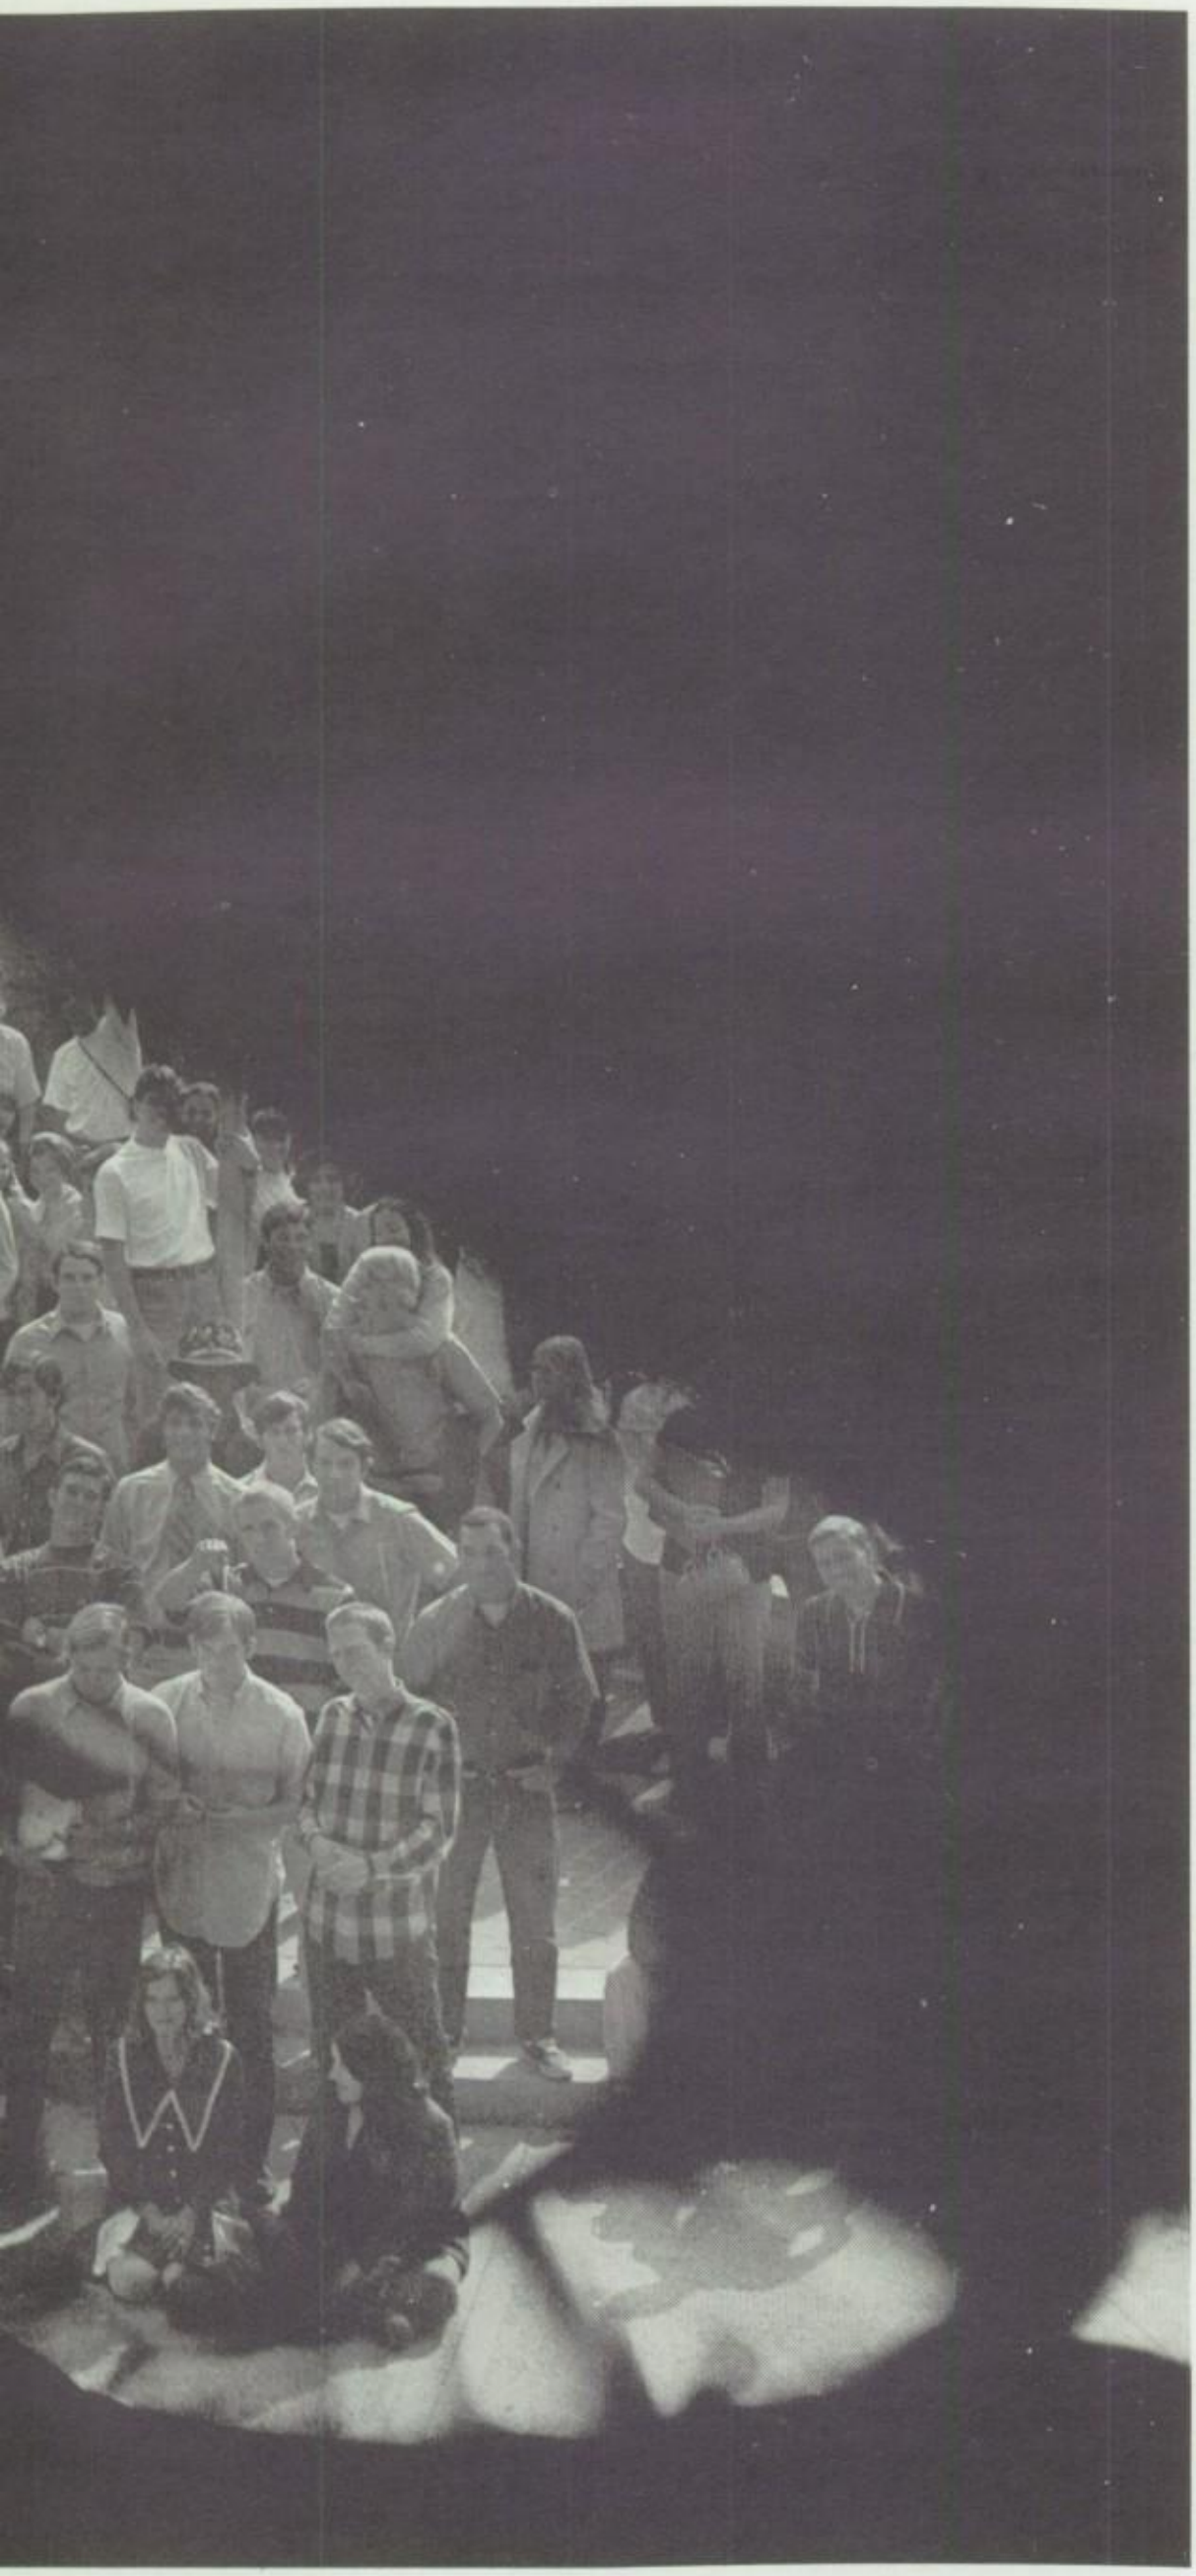


A time to love, and a time to hate;

A time of war, and a time of . . . . . .







peace.

RETIRING TEACHERS

Dr. Roger Slocum first began teaching at Fullerton H.S. in 1955. Receiving his education at UCLA, USB, Princeton and the School of Mines, Rapid City, South Dakota, Dr. Slocum enjoys lecturing and nature photography. He plans to travel over the Seven Great Deserts of the world and observe the wild animals in Africa. He and his wife will then devote their lives to preserving vanishing wildlife and promoting ecology through their various lectures.

IN MEMORIAM . . .

CRAIG HUDSPETH 1954-1971

He was carefree
Yet caring,
He was oblivious to the bad things
Yet well aware of the good.
He had a great sense of adventure
And was more enthusiastic about life
Than can be expressed.
He was humorously sarcastic
Yet never malicious,
He had a cool outer shell
Yet a soft, loving, core.
He had my admiration.

People say,
"Learn from his death what you can"
I say, "I'll say"
Yet,
I'd rather have my friend alive
Than all the knowledge in the universe.

Time goes, you say? Ah no!
Alas, Time stays, we go.
